

Reading activity for today.

For this task I'd like you to look at the extracts provided about the flowers used to build the Wolves house.

What do you notice about the language choices made by the author? Look specifically at the flower names and where they are positioned within the house.

Can you write an explanation of what you found and what clever choices the author, Eugene Trivizas, has made?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---