Evaluation:

I liked the wolves part best because Wolves are the best team in the world and I also liked the red white and blue pipe cleaners stand.

If I were to do it again I would change the spurs badge for a Bournemouth one so then all of the badges on that stand would be red, like i did It all blue on the Chelsea stand.

I don't really want to be a Rollercoaster designer it is insanely tough work and takes countless errors to make it just right.
