

Statutory Spellings in Sentences Year 3/4 4

The words below are synonyms for the words that are missing from the 5 sentences. Use these clues to fill the spaces.

have

study

funny

come

gasp

There was a _ r _ _ _ g _ smell leaking from the old professor's laboratory.

With a tear in his eye the old man took a big _ _ _ a _ h and sighed.

Haley wanted to _ e _ _ n French before visiting France.

Sandra had a gold necklace, but Sara didn't _ o _ _ _ _ s such a fine piece of jewellery.

The hotel guests will _ r _ i _ _ in the afternoon when the rooms are ready.

The words below are synonyms for the words that are missing from the 6 sentences. Use these clues to fill the spaces.

maybe

cluster

although

judge

many

different

The weather man explained that _ _ _ a _ _ _ it might rain tomorrow.

Inside two _ _ _ _ _ _ e boxes are baubles for the Christmas tree.

Sydney was a fast cat even _ _ _ u _ _ he had only three legs.

The magician asked Erin to _ e _ _ _ _ which box she thought the rabbit was hiding in.

There are _ _ r _ _ _ _ colours in the rainbow.

A _ _ o _ _ of ducklings became lost and went to search for their mother.

Statutory Spellings in Sentences Year 3/4 4

The words below are synonyms for the words that are missing from the 5 sentences. Use these clues to fill the spaces.

have

study

funny

come

gasp

There was a strange smell leaking from the old professor's laboratory.

With a tear in his eye the old man took a big breath and sighed.

Haley wanted to learn French before visiting France.

Sandra had a gold necklace, but Sara didn't possess such a fine piece of jewellery.

The hotel guests will arrive in the afternoon when the rooms are ready.

The words below are synonyms for the words that are missing from the 6 sentences. Use these clues to fill the spaces.

maybe

cluster

although

judge

many

different

The weather man explained that perhaps it might rain tomorrow.

Inside two separate boxes are baubles for the Christmas tree.

Sydney was a fast cat even though he had only three legs.

The magician asked Erin to decide which box she thought the rabbit was hiding in.

There are various colours in the rainbow.

A group of ducklings became lost and went to search for their mother.