

Application and Reasoning

Step 6: Using the Future Perfect Form

National Curriculum Objectives:

English Year 5: (5G4.1b) Using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause

Differentiation:

Questions 1, 4 and 7 (Application)

Developing Complete the table by writing single clause sentences in the future perfect form using the given past perfect and present perfect examples. Includes regular verbs only.

Expected Complete the table by writing multiple clause sentences in the future perfect form using the given past perfect or present perfect examples. Includes regular and irregular verbs.

Greater Depth Complete the table by writing multiple clause sentences in the future perfect form using the given past perfect or present perfect examples. Includes more than one irregular verb per sentence.

Questions 2, 5 and 8 (Application)

Developing Rewrite the single clause sentence in the future perfect tense. Includes regular verbs only.

Expected Rewrite the multiple clause sentence in the future perfect tense. Includes regular and irregular verbs.

Greater Depth Rewrite the multiple clause sentence in the future perfect tense. Includes more than one irregular verb.

Questions 3, 6 and 9 (Reasoning)

Developing Explain how the future perfect form changes the meaning of a single clause sentence. Includes regular verbs only.

Expected Explain how the future perfect form changes the meaning of a multiple clause sentence. Includes regular and irregular verbs.

Greater Depth Explain how the future perfect form changes the meaning of a multiple clause sentence. Includes more than one irregular verb.

More resources from our Grammar, Punctuation and Spelling scheme of work.

Did you like this resource? Don't forget to review it on our website.

Using the Future Perfect Form

Using the Future Perfect Form

1a. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	I had cleaned for hours.
Present Perfect	I have cleaned for hours.
Future Perfect

A

1b. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	He had played for years.
Present Perfect	He has played for years.
Future Perfect

A

2a. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

The caretaker had opened the door.

A

2b. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

The children had checked the list.

A

3a. Read the sentences below.

Mrs Patel had marked the books.

Mrs Patel will have marked the books.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

R

3b. Read the sentences below.

Liam had packed his suitcase.

Liam will have packed his suitcase.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

R

Using the Future Perfect Form

Using the Future Perfect Form

4a. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	The family had walked for miles through the dark forest.
Present Perfect
Future Perfect

A

4b. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect
Present Perfect	Anita has lived in Germany for seventeen years.
Future Perfect

A

5a. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

The tired bird had flown back to its nest before the storm.

A

5b. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

By April, Captain Gregor and his crew had travelled around the world.

A

6a. Read the sentences below.

Before the meal with his friends, Kevin had worked for twelve hours.

Before the meal with his friends, Kevin will have worked for twelve hours.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

R

6b. Read the sentences below.

Before the summer break, Ruby will have booked her holiday to Italy.

Before the summer break, Ruby had booked her holiday to Italy.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

R

Using the Future Perfect Form

Using the Future Perfect Form

7a. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	Shane had flown aeroplanes and served in the Air Force for seven years.
Present Perfect
Future Perfect

A

7b. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect
Present Perfect	Alexa has ridden motorbikes and driven sports cars for years.
Future Perfect

A

8a. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains verbs in the future perfect form.

Before the cold, winter weather started, Freya had grown and sold all of the vegetables from her allotment.

A

8b. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains verbs in the future perfect form.

By the time the next book in the series was released, Jed had read everything that the author had written.

A

9a. Read the sentences below.

By the time the sun set, Robert and his friends had designed and built their new tree house.

By the time the sun sets, Robert and his friends will have designed and built their new tree house.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

R

9b. Read the sentences below.

Before the visitors arrived, Maisie had prepared the food and set the dining table.

Before the visitors arrive, Maisie will have prepared the food and set the dining table.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

R

Application and Reasoning Using the Future Perfect Form

Developing

- 1a. I will have cleaned for hours.
- 2a. The caretaker will have opened the door.
- 3a. In the past perfect sentence, Mrs Patel has already marked the books. In the future perfect sentence, Mrs Patel has not yet marked the books.

Expected

- 4a. Present Perfect – The family has walked for miles through the dark forest. Future Perfect – The family will have walked for miles through the dark forest.
- 5a. The tired bird will have flown back to its nest before the storm.
- 6a. In the past perfect sentence, Kevin has already worked for twelve hours. In the future perfect sentence, Kevin has not yet worked for twelve hours.

Greater Depth

- 7a. Present Perfect – Shane has flown aeroplanes and served in the Air Force for twelve years. Future Perfect – Shane will have flown aeroplanes and served in the Air Force for twelve years.
- 8a. Before the cold, winter weather starts, Freya will have grown and sold all of the vegetables from her allotment.
- 9a. In the past perfect sentence, Robert and his friends have already designed and built their new tree house. In the future perfect sentence, Roberts and his friends have not yet built their new tree house.

Application and Reasoning Using the Future Perfect Form

Developing

- 1b. He will have played for years.
- 2b. The children will have checked the list.
- 3b. In the past perfect sentence, Liam has already packed his suitcase. In the future perfect sentence, Liam has not yet packed his suitcase.

Expected

- 4b. Past Perfect – Anita had lived in Germany for seventeen years. Future Perfect – Anita will have lived in Germany for seventeen years.
- 5b. By April, Captain Gregor and his crew will have travelled around the world.
- 6b. In the past perfect sentence, Ruby has already booked her holiday to Italy. In the future perfect sentence, she has not yet booked her holiday.

Greater Depth

- 7b. Past Perfect – Alexa had ridden motorbikes and driven sports cars for years. Future Perfect – Alexa will have ridden motorbikes and driven sports cars for years.
- 8b. By the time the next book in the series is released, Jed will have read everything that the author has written.
- 9b. In the past perfect sentence, Maisie has already prepared the food and set the table. In the future perfect sentence, Maisie has not yet prepared the food and set the table.