

Step 4: Prepositional Phrases

Introduction

Match each word to its type.

sleeping

between

rusty

this

brick

happily

preposition

adjective

adverb

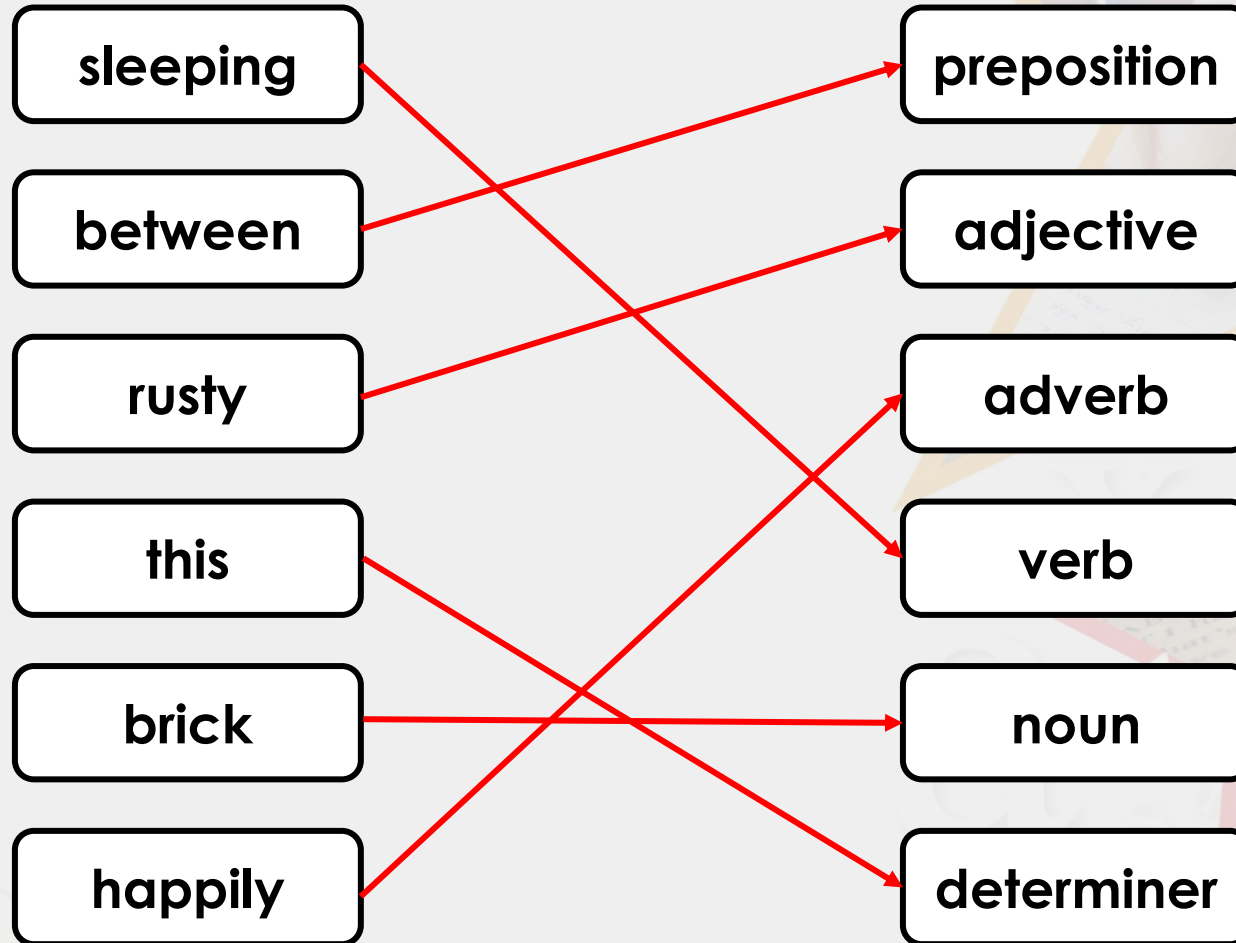

verb

noun

determiner

Introduction

Match each word to its type.

Varied Fluency 1

Circle the prepositions below.

swim

friendly

along

next

village

before

Varied Fluency 1

Circle the prepositions below.

swim

friendly

along

next

village

before

Varied Fluency 2

Underline the prepositional phrase in the sentence below.

Max walked home from football club
and had a long shower.

Varied Fluency 2

Underline the prepositional phrase in the sentence below.

Max walked home from football club
and had a long shower.

Varied Fluency 3

Tick the sentence which uses a prepositional phrase.

Our teachers have a training day so the school is closed.

☐

The new houses were built beyond the river.

☐

Varied Fluency 3

Tick the sentence which uses a prepositional phrase.

Our teachers have a training day so the school is closed.

☐

The new houses were built beyond the river.

☒

Varied Fluency 4

Add a prepositional phrase from the word bank to complete the sentence.

under my nail

by the cheese

with my friends

I went bowling _____
and I won both games.

Varied Fluency 4

Add a prepositional phrase from the word bank to complete the sentence.

under my nail

by the cheese

with my friends

I went bowling with my friends
and I won both games.

Application 1

Write a multiple clause sentence using the prepositional phrase below.

past the church

Application 1

Write a multiple clause sentence using the prepositional phrase below.

past the church

Various possible answers, for example:

We always drive past the church on our way to school.

Application 2

Write a multiple clause sentence to describe the picture using one of the prepositions in a prepositional phrase.

along

through

above

Application 2

Write a multiple clause sentence to describe the picture using one of the prepositions in a prepositional phrase.

along

through

above

Various possible answers, for example: Quickly, the strong husky pulled its owner along the crisp, glittering snow.

Reasoning 1

Josh has written the sentence below.

Cautiously, the children walked
the across busy, main road.

Has he used a prepositional phrase correctly?

Explain your reasoning.

Reasoning 1

Josh has written the sentence below.

Cautiously, the children walked
the across busy, main road.

Has he used a prepositional phrase correctly?

Explain your reasoning.

Josh is not correct because...

Reasoning 1

Josh has written the sentence below.

Cautiously, the children walked
the across busy, main road.

Has he used a prepositional phrase correctly?

Explain your reasoning.

Josh is not correct because the preposition 'across' should come before the determiner 'the' instead of after it.