

Learning Objective: I can use an 8-point compass to learn more about an area of North America.

Instructions: Use the map of the United States and an eight point compass to complete this task.

Part I: Which Direction?

- 1. Start in Colorado. Travel in a straight line to Montana. Which direction did you go in? _____
- 2. Start in Florida. Travel in a straight line to Iowa. Which direction did you go in? _____
- 3. Start in Maine. Travel in a straight line to New York. Which direction did you go? _____
- 4. Start in Minnesota. Travel to Louisiana. Which direction did you go? _____
- 5. Start in Louisiana. Travel to West Virginia. Which direction did you go? _____
- 6. If you travel from California to Virginia. Which direction will you go? _____
- 7. Travel from Wyoming to Kansas. Which direction did you go? _____
- 8. Travel from Florida to Texas. Which direction did you go? _____

Part II. Where Are You?

For this task, colour the starting state in light blue and the finishing state in yellow.

- 1. Start in Utah. Move 2 states to the east. Where are you? _____
- 2. Start in New Mexico. Travel one state to the northeast. Where are you? _____
- 3. Start in Idaho. Travel one state to the northwest. Where are you? _____
- 4. Start in Virginia. Travel two states to the south. Where are you? _____
- 5. Start in South Carolina. Travel three states to the west. Where are you? _____
- 6. Start in Texas. Travel four states to the north. Where are you? _____
- 7. Start in Nevada. Travel one state to the south east. Where are you? _____
- 8. Start in Colorado. Travel one state to the southwest. Where are you? _____

